If it's only your address that's changed, and you don't want your new address printed on your driver licence, please update your address online at www.nzta.govt.nz/online or call 0800 822 422. There's no fee involved.
- ☐ Your appearance has changed significantly from that shown on your current driver licence and/or driver ID card and a new photo is required.

Where to apply

Take your completed form and all original documents to any driver licensing agent. Go to www.nzta.govt.nz/agent to find an agent in your area.

A customer services representative will process your application, check your identification, take your photo* and a sample signature for your licence if required, check your eyesight if required, and take your payment.

*When your photo is taken you mustn't wear sunglasses, a hat, any head coverings or anything else that might obscure your face or prevent the photo from being a good likeness. You may wear an item for religious or medical reasons provided you supply a signed statement confirming this, and wearing the item doesn't stop the photo from being a good likeness. Please don't wear reflective or fluorescent clothing, as it may interfere with the quality of the photo.

Eyesight

If you're applying for a replacement driver licence because you don't need correcting lenses to drive anymore, you must prove that your eyesight is up to standard.

You can:

- pass an eyesight screening check at a driver licensing agent, or
- present a satisfactory eyesight certificate or medical certificate (no more than 60 days old).

The certificate must be issued by a New Zealand registered optometrist or health practitioner (see the Medical certificate section below). If you don't pass the eyesight check at an agent, you'll need to provide a certificate instead.

If you have sight in only one eye, or have only one eye (monocular vision) you'll need to present an eyesight certificate.

Medical certificate

You may need a medical certificate if you've had a medical condition or disability that has affected your ability to drive safely in the last five years.

The medical certificate must be completed by a New Zealand registered health practitioner, for example your doctor (GP), a registered nurse or nurse practitioner, or a specialist.

The certificate must not be more than 60 days old.

Stocks of the form Medical certificate for driver licence (DL9) are held by health practitioners.

The medical certificate must state that you are fit to drive or indicate conditions under which you can drive safely.

Warning

It's an offence to supply false or misleading information and may lead to court action. The consequences can include losing your licence and/or paying a fine.

Responsibilities

Driver licences make our roads safer for everyone and prove drivers are qualified and legally entitled to be behind the wheel. You must always carry your licence with you when you drive.

Your address will be recorded on the Driver Licence Register and you should notify Waka Kotahi NZ Transport Agency if you change your address.

If your old driver licence is replaced by a new version, you must surrender the old version under s30 of the Land Transport Act 1998.

Email address

Giving us your email address is optional. We'll email you information and reminders about your application and driver licensing, and other Waka Kotahi services, including asking for feedback on our services and the transport system. We recommend using an email address that's unique to you, so only you can see information we send you.

Expiry date

Your replacement licence will have the same expiry date as the licence it's replacing.

If you want to extend your expiry date, you can apply to renew your licence using the Application for driver licence form (DL1).

The standard renewal period for drivers less than 66 years of age is 10 years. Drivers aged 66+ get a shorter renewal period and pay a reduced fee.

To check the fee go to www.nzta.govt.nz/dl-renewal-fee
